We Hear the Word of God

We seek to learn more about God's love and grace, and how we are to live our lives as disciples of Jesus Christ. The Bible is our primary text on faith, which we consider to be scripture - sacred writings. We believe the Bible to be the "inspired word of God." Gospel (which means "Good News") refers to Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, which are Christians' most central books of the Bible.

POSTLUDE

TIME OF FELLOWSHIP

The Flow of the Worship Service

Our worship service has an intentional order to it. The flow of worship is called the liturgical movement. The movement reminds us weekly of our journey in faith of moving from being separated from God by sin, to being restored by God's grace as disciples of Christ. It is based on the sixth chapter of the Biblical book of Isaiah.

- (1) God welcomes us and invites us
- (2) We respond to God's call by worshiping Him
- (3) We confess our need for God's forgiveness and grace
- (4) We are assured of God's forgiveness and grace
- (5) We learn more about God's will through scripture, song, and sermon
- (6) We grow closer to God and one another through prayer
- (7) We give God thanks by offering our time, talent, and treasure
- (8) God sends us into the world to share His love and grace with others

About Today

Church Season: Pentecost –which is the season of the church in mission. It is the time between the ascension of Christ and his second coming, which is the time we are presently living in today, and as such is the longest season of the church year. During this season we focus on how we, as disciples of Jesus Christ, are called by God to go out into the world and share his Good News through both our deeds and words.

Color of the Paraments (cloths on the altar and pulpit):

Green – symbolizing the growth of the Christian church, as we go out into the world and share God’s Good News with both our words and actions, and invite others into the church of Jesus Christ.

The suggested scripture lessons are from the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL), which selects passages throughout the Bible over a three year cycle. The RCL is the most common lectionary used by Christian churches. We are in Year C, which emphasizes the Gospel of Luke.

The Bible is in two sections: Old Testament - OT (scripture prior to Christ’s birth), located in the first 2/3 of the Bible; and New Testament - NT (about Christ & early church). The first four books of the NT are called the “Gospels,” which Christians consider the most central books of the Bible; the rest of the NT takes place after his ascension into heaven.

This Sunday, June 26, 2022 -- Lectionary Reading for the Third Sunday after Pentecost

1 Kings 19:15-16, 19-21

Psalm 16

Galatians 5:1, 13-25

Luke 9:51-62

The Book of First Kings

During the Middle Ages, the Book of Kings was divided into two parts. The first book provides a history of the Israelite people and their theological struggles from the death of King David (970 B.C.) through the reign of King Solomon, to the division of Israel into the two kingdoms of Israel and Judah, to the death of King Ahab, to the role of his son Ahaziah (850 B.C.).

Psalm 16

This is an OT sung prayer for God’s continual help, where the one who is praying also expresses their trust in God’s divine providence.

The Letter of Paul to the Galatians

This NT Epistle (letter) was written to the churches of Galatia by the apostle Paul sometime between 49-55 A.D. Within this letter is the critical theological doctrine of justification by faith (salvation by God’s actions through Jesus Christ, not by our own actions). Paul was a Christian, Jew, Pharisee, Roman citizen, and church leader, who had a direct encounter with Jesus Christ on the road to Damascus after Jesus’ ascension into heaven. Paul wrote more of the NT than any other person.

The Gospel According to Luke

The Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles is attributed to Luke “the beloved physician,” written around 59-90 A.D. (C.E.). Not having met Jesus personally, Luke undertook the task of “investigating everything carefully from the very first, to write and orderly account” of Jesus Christ, “so that you may know the truth concerning the things about which you have been instructed.”

Next Sunday, July 3 -- Lectionary Reading for the Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Isaiah 66:10-14

Psalm 66:1-9

Galatians 6:7-16

Luke 10:1-11, 16-20

From the Addiction & Recovery Taskforce: Step Three

We made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood him.

As addicts, our will and our lives were controlled by drugs affecting our total body, mind, and spirit. In recovery, we make a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understand Him. Addicts do not need to come from a religious background to take this step.

For the first time since that first high, we made a decision for ourselves. This decision implies action and is based on faith. We see miracles happening in the lives of clean addicts and the relief of letting go and letting God helps us to develop a life that is worth living.

Surrendering to the will of our Higher Power gets easier with daily practice. At times during our recovery, the decision to ask for God's help is our greatest source of strength and courage. Principles such as open-mindedness, willingness, and surrender are the keys to this step. Our fears are lessened and faith begins to grow. We are no longer fighting fear, anger, guilt, self-pity, or depression. We are slowly beginning to lose the paralyzing fear of hopelessness.

Addicts enjoy living clean, and want more of the good things recovery has to offer. Upon completion of this step, we are ready for our first, honest self appraisal and move on to Step Four

Anniversary Pastor Celebration at recent PSEC Annual Spring Meeting

Each year at our Annual Spring Meeting, we lift up pastors celebrating a 5 year (5-10-15, etc) anniversary of their ordination.

Special recognition is then given to those with 50+ years of ordained ministry. This year we lifted up Rev. Dr. Geneva M. Butz who celebrated 50 years of ministry and Rev. Dr. Gene W. Aulenbach who celebrated 55 years of ministry. A private luncheon honoring the two pastors followed the presentations.

Rev. Dr. Geneva M. Butz

Rev. Dr. Gene W. Aulenbach and Mrs. Vivien Aulenbach

Pastors not in attendance celebrating 50+ years of Ordination are:
