PRAYER BEFORE WORSHIP ⑩ (Unison)

Gracious God, lead us in your truth this day. We long to know your ways and to be guided by your Spirit. Direct us into that realm where your purposes govern the hearts and minds of all your children. We want to grow in the likeness of Jesus, to learn to live in ways that are pleasing to you. We wait for you now, eager to respond to your instruction. Let nothing cut us off from you or separate us from one another, not only in this time of worship but as we face the challenges of another week. Amen.

*INVOCATION

Leader: In the name of God the Father, and of God the Son, and of God the Holy Spirit.

ALL: Amen.

*CALL TO WORSHIP ②

Leader: Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life.
Whoever comes to me will never be hungry,
and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

People: Together, we begin a season of self-examination.
We begin a humble walk with God through Lent.

Leader: This is a time for building spiritual disciplines.
Those disciplined by Christ become disciples.

People: We seek to follow in the steps of Jesus.
We want to walk in the paths where Christ leads.

We Repent

This is a time to confess our wrongdoings and neglects, ask for God's mercy, admit our need for God's forgiving grace, hear the assurance of our forgiveness, and then give God our thanks and praise.

*CALL TO CONFESSION ① (Leader)

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to struggle against everything that leads us away from the love of God and neighbor. Repentance, fasting, prayer, study, and works of love help us return to that love. I invite you, therefore, to commit yourselves to love God and neighbor by confessing your sin and by asking God for strength to persevere in your Lenten discipline.

*CONFESSION OF SIN ⑤

Leader: Let us pray....

People: Most holy and merciful God: We confess to you and to one another, and to the world communion of saints in heaven and on earth, that we have sinned by our own fault in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

Leader: We have not loved you with all our heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others as we have been forgiven.

People: Have mercy on us, O God.

Leader: We have been deaf to your call to serve as Christ served us. We have not been true to the mind of Christ. We have grieved your Holy Spirit.

People: Have mercy on us, O God.

Leader: We confess to you, O God, all our past unfaithfulness. The pride, hypocrisy, and impatience in our lives,

People: We confess to you, O God.

Leader: Our self-indulgent appetites and ways and our exploitation of other people,

People: We confess to you, O God.

Leader: Our anger at our own frustration and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,

People: We confess to you, O God.

Leader: Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts and our dishonesty in our daily life and work,

People: We confess to you, O God.

Leader: Our negligence in prayer and worship and our failure to commend the faith that is in us,

People: We confess to you, O God.

Leader: Accept our repentance, O God, for the wrongs we have done. For our neglect of human need and suffering and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,

People: Accept our repentance, O God.

Leader: For all false judgments, for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors, and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us,

People: Accept our repentance, O God.

Leader: For our waste and pollution of your creation and our lack of concern for those who come after us,

People: Accept our repentance, O God.

Leader: Restore us, O God, and let your anger depart from us.

People: Favorably hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

ALL: Amen.

CONSECRATION OF THE ASHES ① (Leader)

Holy and merciful God, we acknowledge you as our Creator. We live in the shadow of our mortality because of sin, but we long for immortality. Consecrate these ashes as a symbol of our origin, and consecrate your humble servants bowed before you in patience, that by the Grace of our Lord Jesus, we may walk in newness of life. Amen.

IMPOSITION OF ASHES

{For those who wish to participate in the imposition of ashes, please come forward by coming down the center aisle, and after receiving ashes, re-enter the pew by side aisles.}

{If you would like the ashes placed on your forehead, simply keep your hands to your side. If you prefer to have the ashes placed on the back of your hand, rather than on your forehead, simply stretch out your hand when you approach the pastor.}

{Please note that palm ashes are extremely acidic and may result in a rash for those with sensitive skin. We do not recommend infants receiving ashes.}

ASSURANCE OF PARDON ① (Leader)

Leader: Almighty God does not desire the death of sinners, but rather that they may turn from their wickedness and live. Therefore we implore God to grant us true repentance and the Holy Spirit that those things which we do this day may be pleasing to God, that the rest of our lives may be lived faithfully, and that at the last we may come to God’s eternal joy; through Jesus the Christ.

ALL: Thanks be to God!

We Hear the Word of God

We seek to learn more about God's love and grace, and how we are to live our lives as disciples of Jesus Christ. The Bible is our primary text on faith, which we consider to be scripture - sacred writings. We believe the Bible to be the "inspired word of God." Gospel (which means "Good News") refers to Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, which are Christians' most central books of the Bible.

May our love be genuine, our speech truthful, and our leadership patient and kind as we labor to bring others to your holy mountain. Amen.

Sacrament of Holy Communion ①④

The Sacrament of Holy Communion is the central act of Christian worship, bringing us more fully together with one another and the Triune God, through the sacrifice of the body and blood of Jesus Christ. (Matthew 26:20-30, Mark 14:17-26, Luke 22:14-23, John 13:21-30)

INVITATION

Leader: Dearly beloved in the Lord: Our blessed Saviour Jesus Christ instituted the Holy Communion of his Body and Blood, that it might be the abiding memorial of his atoning death; the seal of his perpetual presence in the Church through the Holy Spirit; the mystical representation of the sacrifice of himself on the cross; the pledge of his undying love for his people; and the bond of his living union and fellowship with them to the end of time.

ALL: The celebration of the Lord's Supper has ever been regarded by the Church as the innermost sanctuary of the whole Christian worship. What we do here is not merely with signs, but with the realities these signs represent. We seek to approach the Lord's Table rightly, striving to be devout and repentant, with a believing mind.

Leader: We cordially invite to partake of this Sacrament all who are truly grieved and penitent for their sins, who look to the Lord Jesus Christ for righteousness and salvation, who abide in the fellowship of his Church, and who desire to possess his Spirit and walk in his ways. To all such the compassionate Redeemer himself says: Come unto me, all you that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

COMMUNION PRAYER

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Leader: It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to you, O Holy Lord, Father Almighty, Everlasting God, who created the heavens and the earth and all that is in them, who made humankind in your own image, and whose tender mercies are over all your works.

We bless you for the beauty and bounty of the earth and for the vision of the day when sharing by all will mean scarcity for none.

We remember the covenant you made with your people Israel, and we give you thanks for all our ancestors in faith. We rejoice that you call us to reconciliation with you and all people everywhere and that you remain faithful to your covenant even when we are faithless.

We rejoice that you call the entire human family to this table of sacrifice and victory. We come in remembrance and celebration of the gift of Jesus Christ, whom you sent, in the fullness of time, to be the good news. Born of Mary, our sister in faith, Christ lived among us to reveal the mystery of your Word, to suffer and die on the cross for us, to be raised from death on the third day, and then to live in glory.

We give thanks to you, gracious God, for the presence of your Holy Spirit in the church you have gathered. With your sons and daughters of faith in all places and times, we praise you with joy and sing....

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Leader:

Lord, we remember that on the night of betrayal and desertion, and on the eve of death, Jesus gathered the disciples for the feast of Passover. Jesus took bread, and after giving thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to the disciples, saying: “This is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes again.

Leader: Therefore we proclaim the mystery of our faith.

ALL: Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come again.

The Flow of the Worship Service

Our worship service has an intentional order to it. The flow of worship is called the liturgical movement. The movement reminds us weekly of our journey in faith of moving from being separated from God by sin, to being restored by God's grace as disciples of Christ. It is based on the sixth chapter of the Biblical book of Isaiah.

- (1) God welcomes us and invites us
- (2) We respond to God's call by worshiping Him
- (3) We confess our need for God's forgiveness and grace
- (4) We are assured of God's forgiveness and grace
- (5) We learn more about God's will through scripture, song, and sermon
- (6) We grow closer to God and one another through prayer
- (7) We give God thanks by offering our time, talent, and treasure
- (8) We experience greater oneness with God and each another through Holy Communion
- (9) God sends us into the world to share His love and grace with others

Why Ashes on Ash Wednesday by Pastor Ben Motz

The putting on of ashes as a part of Ash Wednesday began in Germany in the 9th century. The use of ashes then became widely used in the 10th century. The ashes were from burning the palms from the previous Palm Sunday. Ashes were originally sprinkled over the head, rather than making a sign of the cross.

There were two primary reasons for using ashes on Ash Wednesday. The first is that Ash Wednesday is the beginning of 40 days of fasting during Lent. These 40 days end on Easter. The 40 days do not include Sundays, which are considered to be breaks in the fast. These 40 days are based on Jesus being tempted by the devil in the wilderness for 40 days before beginning his ministry (Matthew 4:1-11, Mark 1:12-13, & Luke 4:1-12). The story of his temptation is generally read on the First Sunday of Lent.

The second reason is that of the symbolism of Adam and Eve being kicked out of the Garden of Eden when they sinned (Genesis 3). After which, they became mortal and now would die and become dust, just as we will become dust. As the palm branches become dust, so too will we. As Paul writes, Jesus is the second Adam who returns us to immortality through his death on the cross to atone for our sins. The use of ashes is therefore a form of public penance - publicly showing that we acknowledge that we are sinful people in need of forgiveness through divine intervention. Fasting is an aspect of this penance, and continues throughout the 40 days of Lent. Penance itself continues until Maundy Thursday (the Thursday before Easter), when Jesus was crucified, taking upon himself our sin.

The use of ashes in our Judeo/Christian faith is much older than the 9th Century. The use of ashes dates all the way back to Old Testament times. One example is that from the book of Isaiah 58:1-12, which is another common Ash Wednesday scripture reading. In this passage, to show their repentance, people are wearing sackcloths and ashes. A sackcloth would be like wearing a burlap sack.

We also learn from Isaiah that fasting and wearing of ashes should not be just religious symbolism. It needs to also include the humbling yourself and doing more to serve others, such as feeding the hungry, releasing captives, giving shelter and clothing to the poor, and working towards justice & peace. It is better not to do it all, than it is to do it just as a religious ritual. Jesus also tells us in Matthew 6:1-21 that if our ashes and fasting is just about religious ritual and piety we should not be doing it at all, which is how the Day of Atonement or Yom Kippur has become corrupted in that passage. Biblically, when fasting you are to give the food that you would normally eat to the poor, or give the money you would normally spend on that food in some way to serve God more fully by more fully serving your fellow humankind, in some way that gives God glory. One such way that the members of UCC churches do this is through the special One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) offering envelopes during Lent which is used by the UCC to provide disaster relief aid around the world.

In the Old Testament, ashes are used primarily for two purposes: purification and penitence. An example of purification can be seen in the book of Numbers, where Moses tells the Israelites to use the ashes of a sacrificed heifer to designate a place for purification - to make that place holy for God. An example of penitence, can be seen in the book of Jonah, where the king of Nineveh took off his robe and put on a sackcloth and sat in ashes to demonstrate his repentance to God. Upon seeing the outward and inward repentance of their king, God spared the people of Nineveh from wrath.

Ashes continue to be used for both purposes today. In the Roman rite, when consecrating a new church, water, salt, wine, and ashes are mixed together and the sprinkled on the altar and walls of the building at various places to purify it and prepare for the consecration rite. In the 4th century ashes and sackcloth with ashes on it began to be commonly used by the church to show public discipline of a particular individual. During the 10th and 11th centuries such public discipline became obsolete, and it is during that time that Ash Wednesday became popular as a form of modified public discipline.

The ashes are meant to publicly show that you see yourself as a sinner in need of repentance. As part of that the person giving the ashes, which is generally a pastor or priest, is to verbally abase you with scripture to remind you that you are but a humble, mortal sinner. The most common scripture used for this is Genesis 3:19, "Remember that you are dust, & to dust you shall return," which is the scripture generally used here at St. Paul's UCC.

The use of ashes has come and gone over the years. During the 1500s most churches stopped using ashes. During the mid 1600s churches began using them again. In the 1970s it began to become more popular again in the U.S. and has been growing in use in the U.S. and in Europe again.

Most Protestant churches incorporate the ashes during the confession before the sermon to liturgically link it with penitence, which is the way it was originally done in Germany in 9th century. During the 1600s most Roman Catholic churches began having ashes at end of worship, so that it would be after the sermon and communion. The two primary reasons being were: one, it had not been used for a period of time and it was easier to add it to the end of the service than to change the liturgy to incorporate it within the service; and two, to liturgically link the use of ashes with fasting, so that you do not eat communion after the fast has begun.

Should I receive ashes?

You are certainly welcome to receive ashes here. You do not need to be a member of St. Paul's UCC or a member of the United Church of Christ to receive ashes – all are welcome to receive the ashes. However, prayerfully ask yourself: What do the ashes mean to me? How will I use them?

If the ashes are for you a public sign that you see yourself as a humble sinner in need of discipline and forgiveness; that you need to be rebuked; that you need to be humble; that you need the sacrifice of Christ; that you are unworthy of that sacrifice; and that you intend to give even more of yourself to God during the next 40 days - then the wearing of ashes may be one way in which that can be demonstrated.

If you are wearing the ashes because it is a religious ritual; or so you can tell some relative or friend that you got your ashes and communion; or to show off your Christian faith and piety to others; or you are not planning to give more of yourself to God and in service to others during this Lenten season - then as Jesus instructs, you should probably keep yourself clean of ashes.

Perhaps a more important question from Micah 6:8 is: How will I work for justice, show kindness, and walk humbly with my Lord God throughout not only these 40 days of Lent, but each of the 365 days throughout the year?

you are dust,

This hymn, exploring the different dimensions of repentance, was written for the choir of the United Church, Hyde Park, Chicago, with Ash Wednesday in mind. Brian Wren reminds us that the Holy Spirit is always with us, not only at Pentecost.
