Jesus went to His hometown.
Some people there did not believe in Him.

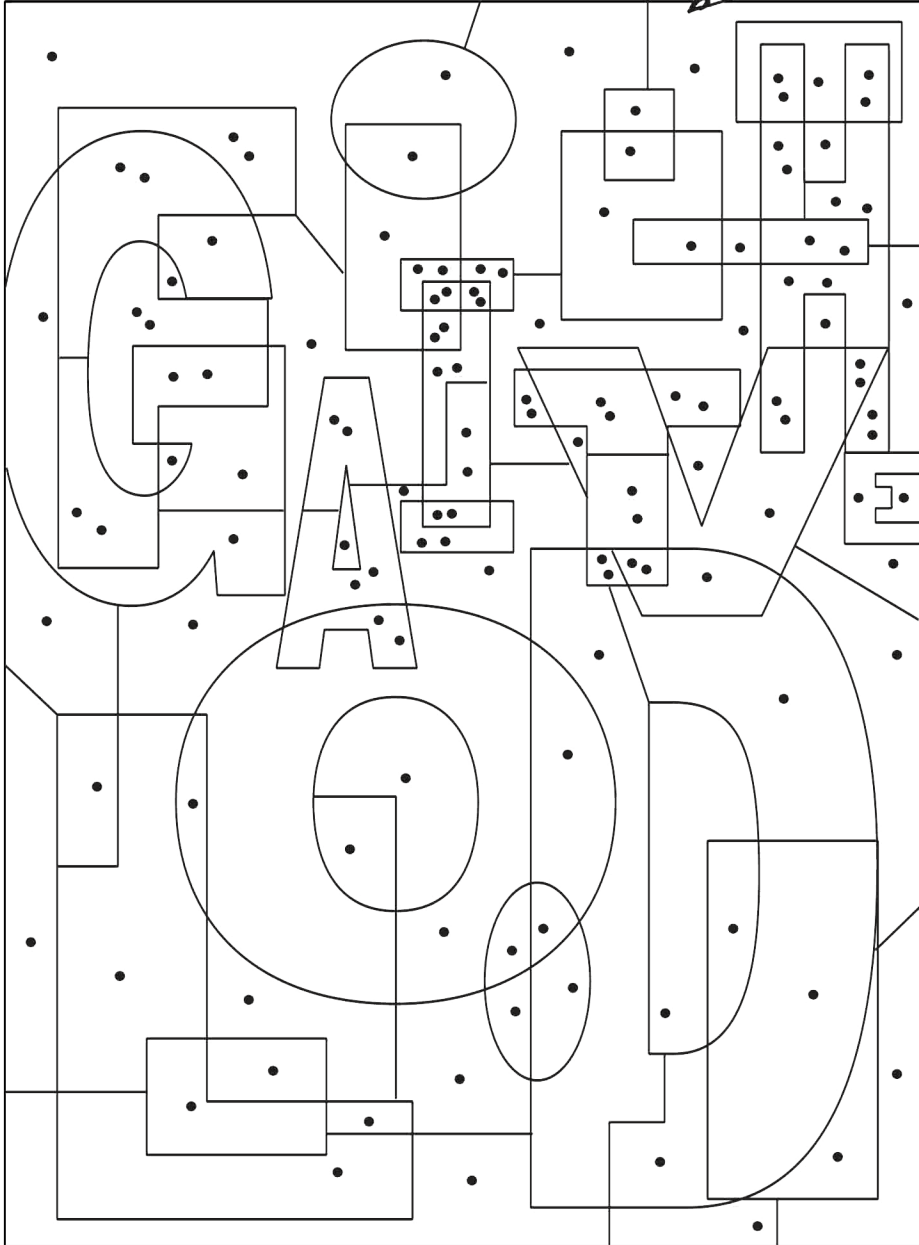

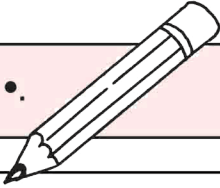

A black and white line drawing depicting a group of men in ancient, possibly biblical, clothing. In the foreground, a man with a beard and a turban-like head covering is looking down at a small object on the ground. Behind him, several other men are standing. Two of them are wearing sashes with the word 'FAITH' written on them. In the background, there is a simple building with several doorways. The drawing is done in a simple, sketchy style.
